To the residents of this address

Subject : Construction at Kavel 14|16
Project : 900 and 1000 Mahler

Amsterdam, 19 February 2015

Dear resident,

We are writing to inform you about the construction work that will soon be taking place at the corner of Gustav Mahlerlaan / Buitenveldertselaan.

This will involve jacking up (increasing the height of) the tower crane. On Saturday 21 and Sunday 22 February, the height of the tower crane being used to construct the residential towers will be increased to 85 metres. This work will be carried out from the construction site. While we cannot give an iron-clad guarantee, we do not expect this work to cause you any inconvenience. On both of these days, the working hours will be from 7:00 to 18:00.

We would also like to inform you about some other upcoming construction work:

- Last Wednesday, following the completion of work on Buitenveldertselaan, the construction-site fencing was removed from the public thoroughfares and the temporary traffic measures were lifted.
- The office building and the car park will be completed by mid-March. Prior to completion, a steel roof will be erected over the access road running from Gustav Mahlerlaan to the car park entrance. This roof will be erected in the first week of March. The entrance will be ready for use on 16 March, and the gates where the access road opens onto Gustav Mahlerlaan will be removed.
- After completion, a 5-metre-wide strip will be created around the office building. This will serve as a corridor, making the building accessible to pedestrians.
- We will be working on the low-rise residential tower sections until the end of March. Construction work on the high-rise sections will commence at the end of March/first week of April. Tunnel formwork will be used to create the towers' basic shells.
